The Partnership makes no express or implied representation or warranty as to the completeness of this information or, in the case of projections, estimates, future plans, or forward-looking assumptions or statements, as to their attainability or the accuracy and completeness of the assumptions from which they are derived, and it is expected that each prospective investor will pursue his, her, or its own independent investigation. It must be recognized that estimates of the Partnership's performance are necessarily subject to a high degree of uncertainty and may vary materially from actual results.

No general solicitation or advertising in whatever form will or may be employed in the offering of the securities, except for this Memorandum (including any amendments and supplements hereto), the exhibits hereto and documents summarized herein, or as provided for under Regulation D of the Securities Act of 1933. Other than the Partnership's Management, no one has been authorized to give any information or to make any representation with respect to the Partnership or the Units that is not contained in this Memorandum. Prospective investors should not rely on any information not contained in this Memorandum.

This Memorandum does not constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy to anyone in any jurisdiction in which such offer or solicitation would be unlawful or is not authorized or in which the person making such offer or solicitation is not qualified to do so. This Memorandum does not constitute an offer if the prospective investor is not qualified under applicable securities laws.

This offering is subject to withdrawal, cancellation, or modification by the Partnership without notice and solely at the Partnership's discretion. The Partnership reserves the right to reject any subscription or to allot to any prospective investor a smaller partnership interest than requested by such prospective investor.

This Memorandum has been prepared solely for the information of the person to whom it has been delivered by or on behalf of the Partnership. Distribution of this Memorandum to any person other than the prospective investor to whom this Memorandum is delivered by the Partnership and those persons retained to advise them with respect thereto is unauthorized. Any reproduction of this Memorandum, in whole or in part, or the divulgence of any of the contents without the prior written consent of the Partnership, is strictly prohibited. Each prospective investor, by accepting delivery of this Memorandum, agrees to return it and all other documents received by them to the Partnership if the prospective investor's subscription is not accepted or if the Offering is terminated.

By acceptance of this Memorandum, prospective investors recognize and accept the need to conduct their own thorough investigation and due diligence before considering an investment with the Partnership. II. SUMMARY OF THE OFFERING

The following material is intended to summarize information contained elsewhere in this Limited Offering Memorandum (the “Memorandum”). This summary is qualified in its entirety by express reference to this Memorandum and the materials referred to and contained herein. Each prospective subscriber should carefully review the entire Memorandum and all materials referred to herein and conduct his, her or its own due diligence before subscribing for a Partnership Interest.

• The Partnership

BlackBird Financial LP (“BlackBird Financial”, or the “Partnership”), began operations with the purpose of investing client capital so as to achieve a satisfactory return. The Partnership’s legal structure was formed as a limited partnership (LP) under the laws of the State of Nevada. Its principal offices are presently located at 1363 1st Avenue, Suite 4, New York, NY 10021. The Partnership’s telephone number is (609) 342-4420.

• General Partner

The General Partner of the Partnership is Mach Three LLC., a Nevada Limited Liability Company ("General Partner"). The General Partner will have exclusive control over day-to-day operations of the Partnership even if additional General Partners are admitted to the Partnership in the future. Information about the General Partners can be found in the “Management” section of this memorandum.

• Operations

BlackBird Financial LP is an investment partnership with a goal of earning a better return than the S&P 500 Index. We expect our results to be judged on a relative basis. If, over five or more years, we have earned higher returns than said index, we will consider this a great success and would value your appreciation, whereas if we earn lower returns than said index, we will deserve and accept your criticism. In our attempt to meet our goals, we will buy securities that we deem to be underpriced and sell short those we believe are overpriced. It should be noted that it can take several years before a mis-pricing is recognized and correspondingly corrected by the market at large. This business can be extraordinarily profitable, but does require a tremendous amount of patience. If you are someone who possesses such patience, we would love to call you our partner.

- Business Plan

Portions of the BlackBird Financial LP Business Plan, included as a separate document, were prepared by the Partnership using assumptions, including several forward-looking statements. Each prospective investor should carefully review the Business Plan in association with this Memorandum before purchasing a Partnership Interest. Management makes no representations as to the accuracy or achievability of the underlying assumptions and projected results contained herein.

- The Offering

The Partnership is willing to accept a minimum investment of $250,000. Each subscriber must execute a Subscription Agreement making certain representations and warranties to the Partnership, including such purchaser's qualifications as an Accredited Investor as defined by the Securities and Exchange Commission in Rule 501(a) of Regulation D promulgated, or one of 35 Non-Accredited Investors that may be allowed to purchase Units in this offering. See "REQUIREMENTS FOR PURCHASERS" section.

- Risk Factors

See "RISK FACTORS" section in this Memorandum for certain factors that could adversely affect an investment in the Units. Those factors include, but are not limited to, unanticipated obstacles to execution of the Business Plan, general economic factors, mistakes made when evaluating securities, or overpaying for any security.

NAV Consulting, Inc. (the "Administrator" or "NAV") has been engaged as the administrator of the Fund pursuant to a Service Agreement entered into with the Fund (the "NAV Agreement"). The Administrator is responsible for, among other things, calculating the Fund's net asset value, performing certain other accounting, back-office, data processing, processing subscriptions, redemptions and transfer activities of Investors in the Fund, certain anti-money laundering functions and related administrative services.

The NAV Agreement provides that the Administrator shall not be liable to the Fund, any Investor or any other person in absence of finding of willful misconduct, gross negligence, or fraud on the part of NAV. Furthermore, Fund shall indemnify and hold harmless the Administrator, its affiliates, and their respective officers, directors, shareholders, employees, agents and representatives (collectively, the "NAV Parties") from and against any liability, damages, claims, loss, cost or expense, including, without limitation, reasonable legal fees and expenses (individually, "Loss" and collectively, "Losses") arising from, related to, or in connection with the services provided to the Fund pursuant to the NAV Agreement, unless any such Losses are the direct result of the willful misconduct, gross negligence or fraud of NAV. In no event shall NAV have any liability to the Fund, any Investor or any other person or entity which seeks to recover alleged damages or losses in excess of the fees paid to NAV by the Fund in the one year preceding the occurrence of any loss, nor shall NAV be liable for any indirect, incidental, consequential, collateral, exemplary or punitive damages, including lost profits, revenue or data, regardless of the form of the action or the theory of recovery, even if NAV has been advised of the possibility of such damages or such damages were foreseeable. Any claim brought against NAV in connection with the NAV Agreement will be barred unless it is initiated within one year of the earlier of the disclosure of the event which is the subject of such claim or the date that the party advancing such claim knew or could with due inquiry have known of such event.

NAV shall not be liable to the Fund, any Investor or any other person for the actions or omissions of any agent, contractor, consultant or other third party performing any portion of the services under the NAV Agreement absent a finding of gross negligence or fraud on the part of NAV in appointing such agent, contractor, consultant or other third party.

NAV shall not be liable to the Fund, any Investor or any other person for actions or omissions made in reliance on instructions from the Fund or advice of legal counsel.

The services provided by NAV are purely administrative in nature. NAV has no responsibilities or obligations other than the services specifically listed in the NAV Agreement. No assumed or implied legal or fiduciary duties or services are accepted by or shall be asserted against NAV. NAV does not provide tax, legal or investment advice. NAV has no duty to communicate with Investors other than as set forth in Exhibit A of the NAV Agreement. NAV does not have custody of Fund's assets, it does not verify the existence of, nor does it perform any due diligence on the Fund's underlying investments, including, investments in or via related or affiliated entities. In connection with the payment processing functions, NAV shall not be responsible for performance of the due diligence on payment recipients other than in connection with payments for Investors' withdrawals from the Fund, which are subject to anti-money laundering review functions of the services.

The NAV Agreement also provides that it is the obligation of the Fund's management, and not of NAV, to review, monitor or otherwise ensure compliance by the Fund with the investment policies, restrictions or guidelines applicable to it or any other term or condition of the Fund's offering documents, including, without limitation, with its valuation policy or the Fund's stated investment strategy, and with laws and regulations applicable to its activities. The Fund's management's responsibility for the management of the Fund, including without limitation, the valuation of the Fund's assets and liabilities, including, defining and maintaining the valuation policy and for fair valuing the Fund's assets, the oversight of the services provided by NAV and the review of work product delivered by NAV shall not be affected by or limited by any of the services provided by NAV.

The NAV Agreement provides that NAV is entitled to rely on any information, including valuation information, received by NAV from the Fund, the Fund's management or other parties, including without limitation, broker-dealers and data vendors, without independent verification, audit, review, inquiry, or performing other due diligence and NAV shall not be liable to the Fund, any Investor or any other persons for losses suffered as a result of NAV relying on incorrect information. NAV has no responsibility to review, independently value, verify, compare to other pricing sources or otherwise perform due diligence on the valuation information. NAV may accept such information as accurate and complete without independent verification. Furthermore, NAV shall not be liable to the Fund, any Investor or any other person for any loss incurred as a result of an error or inaccuracy of any valuation information received from the Fund or from any pricing or valuation service or data service provider or delay, interruption in service or failure to perform of any pricing or valuation service or data service provider used by NAV.

The information on investor statements and other reports produced by NAV shall not be considered an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to purchase any interest in the Fund, nor may it be used to induce or recommend the purchase or holding of any interest in the Fund.

The NAV Agreement bars non-parties from asserting third party beneficiary claims against NAV.

The Fund pays NAV fees out of the Fund's assets, generally based upon the size of the Fund, in accordance with NAV's standard schedule for providing similar services, subject to a monthly minimum.

Either party may terminate the NAV Agreement on 60 days prior written notice as well as on the occurrence of certain events.

Investors may review the NAV Agreements by contacting the Fund; provided, that NAV reserves the right not to disclose the fees payable thereunder.

NAV is not responsible for the preparation of this Confidential Memorandum or the activities of the Fund and therefore accepts no responsibility for any information contained in any other section of this Confidential Memorandum.

- Registrar

Our Administrator will serve as our registrar and transfer agent with respect to our Partnership Interests.

III. REQUIREMENTS FOR PURCHASERS

Prospective Investors should give careful consideration to certain risk factors described under the "RISK AND OTHER IMPORTANT FACTORS" section and especially to the speculative nature of this investment and the limitations described under that caption with respect to the lack of a readily available market for the Partnership Interests and the resulting long-term nature of any investment in the Partnership. This Offering is available only to suitable Accredited Investors, or one of 35 Non-Accredited Investors. Only those with adequate means to assume such risks and of otherwise providing for their current needs should consider making an investment with BlackBird.

• General Suitability Standards

An investment will not be accepted unless such prospective investor or his, her or its duly authorized representative shall have represented in writing to the Partnership in a Subscription Agreement that:

- a) The prospective investor has adequate means of providing for his, her or its current needs and personal contingencies and has no need for liquidity in the investment with BlackBird;
- b) The prospective investor's overall commitment to investments which are not readily marketable is not disproportionate to his, her, or its net worth and the investment in the Partnership will not cause such overall commitment to become excessive; and
- c) The prospective investor is an "Accredited Investor" (as defined below) suitable for purchase in the Units.
- d) Each person acquiring a partnership interest will be required to represent that he, she, or it is making the investment for his, her, or its own account for investment purposes and not with a view to resale or distribution. See "SUBSCRIPTIONS" section.

• Accredited Investors

The Partnership will conduct the Offering in such a manner that Partnership Interests may be sold only to "Accredited Investors" as that term is defined in Rule 501(a) of Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Securities Act"), or to a maximum of 35 Non-Accredited Investors that may be allowed to purchase a Partnership Interest. In summary, a prospective investor will qualify as an "Accredited Investor" if he, she, or it meets any one of the following criteria:

- a) Any natural person whose individual net worth, or joint net worth with that person's spouse, at the time of their investment, exceeds $1,000,000 excluding the value of the primary residence of such natural person;
 - b) Any natural person who had an individual income in excess of $200,000 in each of the two most recent years or joint income with that person's spouse in excess of $300,000 in each of those years, and who has a reasonable expectation of reaching the same income level in the current year;
 - c) Any bank as defined in Section 3(a)(2) of the Act, or any savings and loan association or other institution as defined in Section 3(a)(5)(A) of the Securities Act, whether acting in its individual or fiduciary capacity; any broker or dealer registered pursuant to Section 15 of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act"); any insurance company as defined in Section 2(13) of the Exchange Act; any investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 or a business development company as defined in Section 2(a)(48) of that Act; any Small Business Investment Company (SBIC) licensed by the U.S. Small Business Administration under Section 301(c) or (d) of the Small Business Investment Act of 1958; any plan established and maintained by a state, its political subdivisions, or any agency or instrumentality of a state or its political subdivisions, for the benefit of its employees, if such plan has total assets in excess of $5,000,000; any employee benefit plan within the meaning of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, if the investment decision is made by a plan fiduciary, as defined in Section 3(21) of such Act, which is either a bank, savings and loan association, insurance company, or registered investment advisor, or if the employee benefit plan has total assets in excess of $5,000,000 or, if a self directed plan, with investment decisions made solely by persons who are Accredited Investors;
 - d) Any private business development company as defined in Section 202(a)(22) of the Investment Advisors Act of 1940;
 - e) Any organization described in Section 501(c)(3)(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, corporation, business trust, or partnership, not formed for the specific purpose of acquiring the securities offered, with total assets in excess of $5,000,000;
 - f) Any director or executive officer, or general partner of the issuer of the securities being sold, or any director or executive officer of that issuer;

- g) Any trust, with total assets in excess of $5,000,000, not formed for the specific purpose of acquiring the securities offered, whose purchase is directed by a sophisticated person as described in Section 506(b)(2)(ii) of Regulation D adopted under the Act; and
- h) Any entity in which all the equity owners are Accredited Investors.

- Investor Identification

In accordance with US AML rules, BlackBird or the Administrator will ask for the investor's name, address, date of birth and other information that will allow us to identify the investor, and may also request to see the appropriate identification documents.

- Other Requirements

No subscription for a Partnership Interest will be accepted from any investor unless they are making the investment for their own account (or accounts as to which they have sole investment discretion), for investment and without any view to sale, distribution or disposition thereof. Each prospective purchaser of a Partnership Interest may be required to furnish such information as the Partnership may require to determine whether any person or entity purchasing a Partnership Interest is an Accredited Investor, or select Non-Accredited Investor who may purchase a Partnership Interest.

IV. FORWARD-LOOKING INFORMATION

Some of the statements contained in this Memorandum, including information incorporated by reference, discuss future expectations, or state other forward-looking information. Those statements are subject to known and unknown risks, uncertainties, and other factors, several of which are beyond the Partnership's control, which could cause the actual results to differ materially from those contemplated by the statements. The forward-looking information is based on various factors and was derived using numerous assumptions. In light of the risks, assumptions, and uncertainties involved, there can be no assurance that the forward-looking information contained in this Memorandum will in fact transpire or prove to be accurate.

Important factors that may cause the actual results to differ from those expressed within may include, but are not limited to:

- The Partnership's ability to successfully assess the value of securities and identify those which are mis-priced;

- The Partnership’s ability to attract, build, and maintain a client base;
- The Partnership’s ability to attract and retain quality employees;
- The effect of changing economic and market conditions.

These along with other risks, which are described under “RISK FACTORS” may be described in future communications to members. The Partnership makes no representation and undertakes no obligation to update the forward-looking information to reflect actual results or changes in assumptions or other factors that could affect those statements.

V. RISK FACTORS

Investing in the Partnership is very risky. You should be able to bear a complete loss of your investment. You should carefully consider the following factors, including those listed in the accompanying business plan.

• Dependence on Management

The Partnership’s business will be significantly dependent on the Partnership’s management team. The Partnership’s success will be particularly dependent upon: Judah Spinner. The loss of this individual could have a material adverse effect on the Partnership. This is particularly true in our business where the skill set and temperament of management is what drives a funds success. See “MANAGEMENT” section.

• Risks Associated with Expansion

The Partnership plans on expanding the size of its fund. As the amount of capital that we need to deploy increases, we will need to find more and larger opportunities. There are two potential points of trouble: First, we may fail to find such opportunities and in turn keep a large proportion of our funds in cash or equivalents, which will weigh on client returns, perhaps heavily. Second, we may cave in to the pressure and lower our standards as to where we invest our partners’ money, and that is sure to prove costly to our partners.

• Market Trends and Volatility

The Partnership’s operating results may fluctuate significantly from period to period as a result of a variety of factors, including market and general economic conditions. Additionally, there is no assurance that the Partnership will be successful in finding and buying or selling-short mis-priced securities, or closing the position when the mis-pricing has been corrected. Consequently, the Partnership's returns may vary significantly over time, and the Partnership's performance will likely experience material fluctuations.

- Risks of Borrowing

If the Partnership incurs indebtedness, our investment results will be magnified. While this is beneficial in good times, it can prove catastrophic in bad times. If we borrow $1 for each $1 we invest, a 50% decline in prices would wipe out our equity entirely. While we do not intend to use borrowed money excessively or even often, we may do so upon occasion when we believe it is in the best interests of all our partners.

- Management Discretion as to Use of Proceeds

The net proceeds from this Offering will be used in an attempt to achieve the goal described under "Operations." The Partnership reserves the right to use the funds obtained from this Offering for other similar purposes not presently contemplated which it deems to be in the best interests of the Partnership and its members in order to address changed circumstances or opportunities. As a result of the foregoing, the success of the Partnership will be substantially dependent upon the discretion and judgment of Management with respect to application and allocation of the net proceeds of this Offering. Investors in the Partnership hereby will be entrusting their funds to the Partnership's Management, upon whose judgment and discretion the investors must depend.

VI. CONTROL BY MANAGEMENT

Investor members will not have the ability to control either a vote of the Partnership's General Partners or any appointed officers. See "GENERAL PARTNERS" section.

- Return of Profits

The Partnership intends to retain all future earnings to make new investments and expand the size of the Partnership. All members will be entitled to receive part or all of the value of their Partnership Interest within one month of their written request.

- No Assurances of Protection for Proprietary Rights

If there are more competing funds that begin utilizing our strategies when selecting their investments, it will reduce the number of opportunities we find. Our future profits are therefore dependent on others not adopting our strategies, and would be adversely affected if they do.

- Limited Transferability and Liquidity

To satisfy the requirements of certain exemptions from registration under the Securities Act, and to conform with applicable state securities laws, each investor must acquire his, her or its Partnership Interest for investment purposes only and not with a view towards distribution. Consequently, certain conditions of the Securities Act may need to be satisfied prior to any sale, transfer, or other disposition of a Partnership Interest. Some of these conditions may include a minimum holding period, availability of certain reports, including financial statements from BlackBird Financial LP, limitations on the size of the Partnership Interests sold and the manner in which they are sold. BlackBird Financial LP can prohibit any sale, transfer or disposition unless it receives an opinion of counsel provided at the holder's expense, in a form satisfactory to BlackBird Financial LP, stating that the proposed sale, transfer or other disposition will not result in a violation of applicable federal or state securities laws and regulations. No public market exists for the Partnership Interests and no market is expected to develop. Consequently, owners of Partnership Interests may have to hold their investment indefinitely and may not be able to liquidate their investments in BlackBird Financial LP or pledge them as collateral for a loan in the event of an emergency.

- Broker-Dealer Sales of Partnership Interests

The Partnership's Partnership Interests are not presently included for trading on any exchange, and there can be no assurances that the Partnership will ultimately be registered on any exchange due to the fact that it is a limited partnership and not a corporation.

No assurance can be given that the Partnership Interests will ever qualify for inclusion on any trading market until such time as the General Partners deem it necessary and the limited partnership is converted to a corporation. As a result, the Partnership Interests are covered by a Securities and Exchange Commission rule that opposes additional sales practice requirements on broker-dealers who sell such securities to persons other than established customers and accredited investors. For transactions covered by the rule, the broker-dealer must make a special suitability determination for the purchaser and receive the purchaser's written agreement to the transaction prior to the sale. Consequently, the rule may affect the ability of broker-dealers to sell the Partnership's securities and will also affect the ability of members to sell their Partnership Interest in the secondary market.

- Long-Term Nature of Investment

An investment in the Partnership may be long-term and illiquid. As discussed above, the Partnership Interests will not be registered under the Securities Act or any foreign or state securities laws by reason of exemptions from such registration, which depends in part on the investment intent of the investors. Prospective investors will be required to represent in writing that they are purchasing the Partnership Interest for their own account for long-term investment and not with a view towards resale or distribution. Accordingly, purchasers of a Partnership Interest must be willing and able to bear the economic risk of their investment for an indefinite period of time. It is likely that investors will not be able to liquidate their investment in the event of an emergency.

- Compliance with Securities Laws

The Partnership Interests are being offered for sale in reliance upon certain exemptions from the registration requirements of the Securities Act, applicable Nevada Securities Laws, and other applicable state securities laws. If the sale of Partnership Interests were to fail to qualify for these exemptions, purchasers may seek rescission of their purchases of Partnership Interests. If a number of purchasers were to obtain rescission, BlackBird Financial LP would face significant financial demands, which could adversely affect BlackBird Financial LP as a whole, as well as any non-rescinding purchasers.

- Offering Minimum

The minimum investment accepted (listed previously) has been arbitrarily established by BlackBird Financial LP at $250,000.

VII. GENERAL ECONOMIC CONDITIONS

The financial success of the Partnership may be sensitive to adverse changes in general economic conditions in the United States, such as recession, inflation, unemployment, and interest rates. Such changing conditions could significantly affect our performance. Management believes that we will be hurt by changing market conditions at some point in the future, but do also expect that our long-term time horizon should mitigate its effects on BlackBird Financial LP. Nevertheless, BlackBird Financial LP can offer no guarantees as to what future performance will ultimately look like.

VIII. MANAGEMENT

Mach Three LLC will act as both the General Partner and the Investment Manager for BlackBird Financial LP.

• Investment Managers' Compensation

There is no accrued compensation that is due to the Investment Manager. The Investment Manager will not be entitled to reimbursement of expenses incurred while conducting Partnership business. All expenses will be a cost to themselves, not the limited partners. The Investment Manager may hold an Interest in the Partnership and as such will share in the profits of the Partnership, both capital gains and dividends alongside our limited partners, although such profits will not be automatically disbursed, and will instead be reinvested unless a redemption request is made. The Investment Manager will not take a salary for their work in managing the Partnership. The Investment Manager will collect a Management fee and a Performance fee; details are listed below:

• Management Fee

The limited partners will pay a management fee, equating to roughly 2% per annum. This fee will be collected at the start of each month.

• Performance Allocation

The limited partners will not pay any fees directly associated with our fund's performance. This will significantly improve our limited partners' returns over the long-term.

IX. HOW TO SUBSCRIBE FOR A PARTNERSHIP INTEREST

An investor in the Partnership must complete, date, execute, and deliver to the Partnership the following documents, as applicable, all of which are included as part of the Investor Subscription Package:

- a) An Investor Suitability Questionnaire;
- b) A signed copy of the appropriate Subscription Agreement;
- c) A BlackBird Financial LP Limited Partnership Agreement; and
- d) Wire funds to "BlackBird Financial LP" (minimum investment of $250,000).

All investors must submit the documents listed above along with payments to the account (account details are available at the end of this document) on or before the 26th of the month prior to onboarding. If a prospective investor does not have both the documents and payment submitted by that date, they will not be able to join until the start of the following month.

X. REDEMPTIONS

Redemptions will only be paid on the first of each month. No redemption requests shall be fulfilled for the remainder of the month. Redemption requests must be submitted to the Partnership in writing on or before the 15th of the month prior to the requested redemption. There is no minimum or maximum limits to the size of a redemption, subject to their investment balance.

• Lock-up Period

While there are no lock-up periods at BlackBird, the Partnership does reserve the right to refuse to honor redemption payments during times of limited liquidity. In such situations, a redemption request may go several months or longer before it is completed.

XI. VALUATION OF FUND ASSETS

Listed domestic and foreign securities and exchange traded derivatives shall be priced at last price on the exchange on which the security/derivative is principally traded. If there has been no sale on such exchange, the security shall be valued at last available price on such exchange.

Options on listed domestic securities, foreign securities and indices shall be priced at the average of bid and ask price at the time of the close of the exchange on the exchange on which the security is principally traded.

XII. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Each prospective investor may ask questions and receive answers concerning the terms and conditions of this offering and obtain any additional information which the Partnership possesses, or can acquire without unreasonable effort or expense, to verify the accuracy of the information provided in this Memorandum. The principal executive offices of the Partnership are located at 1363 1st Avenue, Suite 4, New York, NY 10021, and the telephone number is (609) 342-4420. EXHIBIT A

BlackBird Financial LP Business Plan

In order for BlackBird Financial to become a tremendous success, there are two areas in which we must excel. As to the first task, we need to raise large amounts of capital as effectively as possible. As a point of warning, we must only accept clients with a long-term time horizon; we must not dismiss this policy so as to achieve a large inflow of capital. As for the latter task, we must earn a satisfactory return for our clients over time. If we accomplish the latter of our objectives, the former will become significantly easier.

With regards to raising capital, we recognize three parties that appear to be natural partners:

- Financial advisors. A financial advisor's primary objective is to match an investor with an investment opportunity so as to achieve his or her clients' goals. We are the perfect opportunity for some of their clients, and so by connecting a prospective investor with BlackBird, the advisor stands to gain in the form of a happy client.
- Friends and family. These are people who are already at least somewhat familiar with and respect our ability to create value. If we are creating value for outsiders, we ought to do the same for those with whom we are closest.
- Car and aircraft enthusiasts. These are often people with whom Management shares a passion.

With regards to investing, we believe we can achieve better than average results due to three reasons:

Our advantage here is in the manner in which we go about finding opportunities.

- 1) We do not spend much time looking at the movement of the stock price; instead we focus on the underlying business fundamentals and how they are likely to develop.

- 2) We do not focus on this past or coming quarter's results, instead we focus on a ten-year time frame. This allows us clarity and perspective that other hedge funds often lack.
- 3) We do not diversify amongst hundreds of investments and instead choose a very concentrated strategy. This allows us to only invest in our most promising ideas, and consequently a good return from a single position will have a meaningful impact on the overall portfolio.

We believe that these advantages will enable us to create enormous value for our clients over time.

General Instructions

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
 - Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
 - Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
 - Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
 - Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
 - Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
 - Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
 - Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)
- Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
4. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting, later, for further information.

Note: If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien;
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States;
- An estate (other than a foreign estate); or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax under section 1446 on any foreign partners' share of effectively connected taxable income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, the rules under section 1446 require a partnership to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the section 1446 withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid section 1446 withholding on your share of partnership income.

In the cases below, the following person must give Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States.

- In the case of a disregarded entity with a U.S. owner, the U.S. owner of the disregarded entity and not the entity;
- In the case of a grantor trust with a U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner, generally, the U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner of the grantor trust and not the trust; and
- In the case of a U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust), the U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person or the U.S. branch of a foreign bank that has elected to be treated as a U.S. person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 or Form 8233 (see Pub. 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items.

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8 or Form 8233.

Backup Withholding

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 24% of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the instructions for Part II for details),
3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,
4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or
5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See Exempt payee code, later, and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Also see Special rules for partnerships, earlier.

What is FATCA Reporting?

The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) requires a participating foreign financial institution to report all United States account holders that are specified United States persons. Certain payees are exempt from FATCA reporting. See Exemption from FATCA reporting code, later, and the Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account; for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Line 1

You must enter one of the following on this line; do not leave this line blank. The name should match the name on your tax return.

If this Form W-9 is for a joint account (other than an account maintained by a foreign financial institution (FFI)), list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of Form W-9. If you are providing Form W-9 to an FFI to document a joint account, each holder of the account that is a U.S. person must provide a Form W-9.

a. Individual. Generally, enter the name shown on your tax return. If you have changed your last name without informing the Social Security Administration (SSA) of the name change, enter your first name, the last name as shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

Note: ITIN applicant: Enter your individual name as it was entered on your Form W-7 application, line 1a. This should also be the same as the name you entered on the Form 1040/1040A/1040EZ you filed with your application.

b. Sole proprietor or single-member LLC. Enter your individual name as shown on your 1040/1040A/1040EZ on line 1. You may enter your business, trade, or “doing business as” (DBA) name on line 2.

c. Partnership, LLC that is not a single-member LLC, C corporation, or S corporation. Enter the entity's name as shown on the entity's tax return on line 1 and any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

d. Other entities. Enter your name as shown on required U.S. federal tax documents on line 1. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

e. Disregarded entity. For U.S. federal tax purposes, an entity that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner is treated as a “disregarded entity.” See Regulations section 301.7701-2(c)(2)(iii). Enter the owner's name on line 1. The name of the entity entered on line 1 should never be a disregarded entity. The name on line 1 should be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income should be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a single owner that is a U.S. person, the U.S. owner's name is required to be provided on line 1. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity's name on line 2, “Business name/disregarded entity name.” If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, the owner must complete an appropriate Form W-8 instead of a Form W-9. This is the case even if the foreign person has a U.S. TIN.

Line 2

If you have a business name, trade name, DBA name, or disregarded entity name, you may enter it on line 2.

Line 3

Check the appropriate box on line 3 for the U.S. federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on line 1. Check only one box on line 3.

IF the entity/person on line 1 is a(n) . . .	THEN check the box for . . .

Consult with the person requesting this form if you are uncertain if the financial institution is subject to these requirements. A requester may indicate that a code is not required by providing you with a Form W-9 with "Not Applicable" (or any similar indication) written or printed on the line for a FATCA exemption code.

Line 5

Enter your address (number, street, and apartment or suite number). This is where the requester of this Form W-9 will mail your information returns. If this address differs from the one the requester already has on file, write NEW at the top. If a new address is provided, there is still a chance the old address will be used until the payor changes your address in their records.

Line 6

Enter your city, state, and ZIP code.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner, enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note: See What Name and Number To Give the Requester, later, for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local SSA office or get this form online at www.SSA.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/Businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. Go to www.irs.gov/Forms to view, download, or print Form W-7 and/or Form SS-4. Or, you can go to www.irs.gov/OrderForms to place an order and have Form W-7 and/or SS-4 mailed to you within 10 business days.

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, apply for a TIN and write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note: Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded U.S. entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if item 1, 4, or 5 below indicates otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on line 1 must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt payee code, earlier.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 5 below.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), ABLE accounts (under section 529A), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Secure Your Tax Records From Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, SSN, or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Pub. 5027, Identity Theft Information for Taxpayers.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a systemic problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes.

Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA) at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at spam@uce.gov or report them at www.ftc.gov/complaint. You can contact the FTC at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 877-IDTHEFT (877-438-4338). If you have been the victim of identity theft, see www.IdentityTheft.gov and Pub. 5027.

Visit www.irs.gov/IdentityTheft to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk.

The person collecting this form uses the information on the form to file information returns with the IRS, reporting the above information. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their laws. The information also may be disclosed to other countries under a treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce civil and criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.
